

Artist Statement

Isabel Theobald

I love combining visual art and choreography with my passion for meditation and mindfulness practices. My work presents images inspired by personal stories to soothe the mind and body through visuals and movement. I aim to help people soften the edges of their minds, opening doors to inner peace and personal healing.