

Artist Statement

Jeanette Offerdahl

Nature is a constant discovery of colors, sounds and textures that I strive to incorporate into my work. My inspiration also comes from my travels near and far as well as my treks into nature. I have come to realize as humans we are more alike than we are different.