

Artist Statement

Jessie Yost

I use beads, polymer clay, and other materials to create cheerful and humorous objects for display. My prolific garden inspires my work, making flowers and nature a common theme. I am also inspired by the colors and finishes of the beads themselves and how they react to the color of the thread that holds them together. Glass bead colors can often change drastically depending on what other colors and finishes are surrounding or running through them.