

Artist Statement

Lynelle Kocher

As an artist, I hold on to memories of places that I've been to and experiences that I've had. The best way to keep those memories alive is to make them into my art. I find that by creating art this way, I bring back time spent with the people that I love. It is like extending our time together and keeping those memories alive.