

Artist Statement

Molly Posten

I am an illustrator and sculptor currently studying at the Minneapolis College of Art and Design. Through my artwork, I like to explore a variety of subjects. My work often explores themes of the natural world with botany as a strong focus. I enjoy researching historic and scientific subjects to get more background knowledge on the subjects I am illustrating and sculpting. I create my work both through traditional and digital methods, using digital collage for the majority of my pieces.